Soldiers Repeatedly Fire on Striking Woolen Mill Workers.

ARMED WOMEN IN RANKS OF MOBS

Men Objected to Being Under Brutal German Factory Superintendent.

COVILHAO, Portugal, Jan. 12.—Strike riots, in which several persons are believed to have been killed and a large number injured are in progress here today. The local garrison has been doubled, and has repeatedly fired on the mobs, in whose ranks are scores of women armed with revolvers and knives. Those who have been shot by the soldiers have been carried away by their friends, and it is impossible to give the extent of the casualties.

Covilha is the center of the Portuguese manufacturing district. The trouble arises over the employment of a German superintendent in one of the big woolen mills. The workmen charged the superintendent with brutality and struck. The employees of between thirty and forty factories walked out in sympathy.

The strikers were in almost constant clashes with the soldiers yesterday, and today the attacks were renewed with increased fury. The factory owners have appealed to the government to send additional troops to the city, as it is feared the strikers will attempt to burn the manufacturing district.

Lisbon Officials Fear Outbreak of Terrorists

LISBON (via Badajoz), Jan. 12.—In anticipation of a terrorist outbreak in February 1, the first anniversary of the assassinations of King Carlos and Crown Prince Luis, the government today began concentrating troops in the capital.

The Duke of Oporto, the uncle of King Manuel, has assumed command of the Lisbon garrison, and is stationing soldiers in different parts of the city.

The government has ordered all policemen to carry rifles, in addition to swords and revolvers. Government spies are that the republicans are well armed, and formidable in numbers. In addition to this the government fears that the majority of government employees are tainted with the revolutionary spirit, and will join the republicans in the event of a serious outbreak.

Ex-Premier Franco is now in Lisbon, according to a rumor that spread through the city today, having entered secretly from Biarritz. He is reported as being in constant communication with Manuel in an effort to arrive at some plan to save the dynasty.

LOST PAPERS DELAY WEDDING FOR YEAR

Young American-Hollander Has a Hard Time Claiming Bride in Native Land.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 12.—Cornell Van Loon, a young Cleveland Hollander, has been compelled to postpone a wedding twice and wait more than a year while the United States Government unravels enough red tape to find lost legal papers.

Van Loon, of Cleveland, has been in Amsterdam since 1907. He went there to claim as his bride Miss Neeltje Wieman. In Holland the law requires the posting of the names of the couples on the door of the town house. In his hurry to get away, Van Loon forgot the consent papers from his parents.

The names of the couple were posted December 17, 1907, but Van Loon's first parental consent papers were faulty, and they had to be returned. Cornell, determined that no mistake should occur again, mailed the necessary blanks addressed to the "Dutch Consul, Cleveland." In time they reached the representative of the Netherlands in Washington, and he communicated with the father, saying that he mailed under separate cover the papers needing his signature. But they never arrived in Cleveland.

Cornell, his father and his mother, are imploping the United States authorities to find the missing papers. The father has again appealed to the consul at Washington.

CLINTON M'LEOD GETS SIXTY DAYS

Arrested on complaint of nearly everybody in the neighborhood of Fourth and H streets northwest, Clinton McLeod this morning was sent to jail for 60 days in default of a $30 fine for creating a disturbance at an eating house yesterday because his dinner was not ready for him when he was ready for his dinner. In the Police Court this morning Clinton denied assaulting Fannie Diggs, who conducts a restaurant at 427 H street.

"Judge, if I slapped that woman, I slapped you," he said.

But if Clinton didn't remember the row he started, the woman's neighbors, at least, did.

MAYBRICK INTERVIEW AROUSSES SENTIMENT

MRS. J. ELLEN FOSTER.

People of District Face to Face With Prison Conditions Here—Mrs. J. Ellen Foster Writes to The Times Correcting Error.

President Roosevelt and should not be allowed to continue. I am glad that Mrs. Maybrick has made public her interest in this matter. The remedies which are demanded can only be obtained through constant reiteration of the facts. We must repeat them over and over again until Congress is stirred into action.

Commissioner Macfarland had this to say:

"I have just read Mrs. Maybrick's appeal to Congress and appreciate its significance. We have desired this reform for years and are now supporting vigorously the recommendations of the special commission upon which the Commissioners were represented by John Joy Edson, president of the Board of Charities. If adopted by Congress we shall see great improvement."

To the Editor of The Washington Times: "I thank Mrs. Maybrick for her appeal. I thank The Times for voicing it, and for editorial comment. The press of Washington has taught the highest ethics and the soundest economics on this and related questions."

"The correction which I wish to make is of Mrs. Maybrick's statement that there is no boys' reformatory in Washington. On the Bladensburg road, within a mile of the Capitol, there was established some twenty years ago a reform school for boys. It has a 3rd degree of success. Its buildings have been remodeled from time to time, because it burned some two years ago; in its place has been erected and is now used a model administration building and dormitories of the most approved plan. There are shops and outdoor work and schools and training of many kinds. There is a hospital with medical attendants and trained nurses. There is a chapel with religious teaching, as well as strict discipline. The law and the Gospel, plenty of hard work and some play are applied to make good citizens out of unfortunate and unruly boys. This transformation is going on all the time."

"O. E. Darnall, the present superintendent, is a prison official of experience and great administrative ability. He is in touch with the latest thought."

CHURCH FACTIONS LINE UP FOR FIGHT

resignation or ignoring his authority in spiritual affairs the congregation will make a determined and firm stand to rule the affairs of the church by popular vote.

Pastor's Claims.

"Dr. Butler, I understand, bases his right to direct the temporal affairs of the church on the fact that he was its founder and has been its financial backer on many occasions. It is true that Dr. Butler's pastorate has covered a period of sixty years and that he has contributed largely to the support of the church, but the members deny his right to dictatorship on this account."

Dr. Butler is inclined to believe that the acceptance of the resignations of the three colleagues yesterday morning is a vindication of his position. "It came as a blow to the few who are trying to make trouble, when the congregation, almost without a dissenting voice, voted to accept the resignation of the insurgents," he said.

"The insupportable desire for power on the part of a few members," he said, "is the only reason I can find for the disruption. This has not been a piece of unwarranted assumption. I am president ex-officio of the council. When I refused to attend a council meeting Mr. Heltmuller was elected to the position of president pro tempore, but I still retain the position as executive officer of that body as long as I am pastor of the church."

FORMER POLICEMAN ON TRIAL FOR LIFE

Accused of Murdering Girl Who Was in Love With Him.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Former Policeman David E. Shellard was placed on trial today in Brooklyn charged with the murder of Barbara Reig, who was found shot through the head in the Shellard house in Irving Square Park the night of July 22.

Shellard's defense is that the girl shot herself because he, as a married man, tried to cure her of her attachment for him.

The prosecution's strong point against Shellard is that he left the girl dying and went out on his beat. The body was found by another policeman, and Shellard kept quiet about his knowledge of the case until letters were found among the girl's effects disclosing her friendship with him.

PUPILS WILL STUDY THE LIFE OF LINCOLN

Prepare for Centenary Celebration to Be Held on February 12.

Next Monday 55,000 pupils in the District schools will begin a special study of the life and character of Abraham Lincoln in preparation for the celebration of the Lincoln centenary, February 12. For three weeks Lincoln is to be the subject of the history classes.

By order of Superintendent A. T. Stuart, the first five grades will study Lincoln's boyhood, his honesty, goodness, love of study, and gentleness; in the third and fourth grades his pioneer life will be given special attention, and in the upper grades and in the normal and high schools a very thorough study of Lincoln's achievements and their influences will be made.

Prose and poetry are both to be used in all the class rooms, and Superintendent Stuart, in the order concerning this special study, has given a list of 164 prose and twelve poetic works for the use of the pupils. The best includes Walter Whitman's "O, Captain! My Captain!"

DEMAND FOR PAVING RESTS WITH SENATE

In response to the request of the North Washington Citizens' Association for information concerning the paving of Todd place between First and Second streets northwest, the association was informed that the Commissioners included an item for this improvement in their last estimates to Congress. The paving of the street in question, the Commissioners say, depends upon the action of the Senate and conference committees in including the necessary appropriation.

FEARED TOTAL LOSS OF HAIR

Scalp had been Scaly for Some Time—After an Attack of Typhoid Fever his Hair Began to Fall Out by the Handful—Now It Is

THICKER THAN EVER THANKS TO CUTICURA

"About two years ago I was troubled with my head being scaly, like dandruff but heavier—although I wash my head once a week always. It never gave me any trouble such as itching or smarting and I never noticed any falling of the hair. But shortly after that I had an attack of typhoid fever and I was out of the hospital possibly two months when I first noticed the loss of hair, my scalp being still scaly. I started to use a dandruff cure to no effect whatever. And I used a quinine preparation quite freely which did no good either. Whether it was the effect of the fever or some scalp disease I don't know, but I had actually lost hope of saving any hair at all. I could brush it off my coat by the handful. It got so bad that I didn't need to comb it any more—in fact I was afraid to. My brother, who had used the Cuticura Remedies with satisfaction, advised me to try them. After using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and nearly a box of Cuticura Ointment, the change was surprising. My scalp is now clear and healthy as could be and my hair thicker than ever, whereas six months ago I had my mind made up to be bald in a short time. I will have a photograph taken later and send you one. William F. Steese, 5812 Broad St., Pittsburg, Penn., May 7 and 21, '08."

Warm baths with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, assisted when necessary by Cuticura Resolvent (liquid or pills), afford instant relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning, scaly, crusty humors, eczemas, rashes, inflammations, irritations and chafings of infancy and childhood; permit rest and sleep and point to a speedy and permanent cure, in the majority of cases, when all other remedies fail.

Cuticura Soap (25c), Ointment (50c), Resolvent (50c) and Cuticura Pills (25c), are sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Boston, Mass. 127 Columbia St.
